Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. I cannot change my dream-state, we control not the moonlight, And I can't speak in dreams so I barely even get the change to say, "Thankyou, my love, from the soul of a dreamer, Who cherishes you through the day, So you get me through the night." Thomas Emmanuel Antonakis credits his dreamer's soul as the author of this collection of pieces - part poetry; part flow; part entranced and all indicative of his loving soul that dreams where he wakes, and is awake while he dreams. Thomas has written many pieces and this is the first true collation put to print. It is the first of many, but the first that made enough clear sense to be collated together to enrich and enlist those souls who need either endorsement, encouragement or just to see they are not alone on this wonderful journey of life through the ages. If you wonder what our souls know that from the human mind they hide, here is a chance to glean perhaps some insight, in service to your soul. For what could be a better relationship to further than that between you and your soul? "Welcome back to the land of the living, my friend. You have slept for quite some time." - Eminem, The Marshall Mathers LP 2 (2012) The aim of this collection is to provide a contemporary portrayal as an outlet for the simple, unbiased, unaffiliated spreading of knowledge and love through words. Why? Because distributing this as a book makes it openly accessible and, most importantly: because there's a guaranteed and high percentage of people in society whose lives will be - either for better or for worse - affected by the words and...
